Divine Healing Transforming Pain into Personal Power BQB Publishing

Do you want to experience the unconditional love of God in your life? Have you ever experienced the unconditional love of God in your life? This book targets the youth so they can cherish the unconditional love of God and put Him at the centre of their lives, looking unto the Lord. Reading this book will make you develop and understand his unconditional love in your walk of life. As a youth you will be able to view God holistically, gain understanding and be empathetic with him in your life, knowing he is with you. It helps you with the step-by-step guide to take when loving God unconditionally throughout your life. The Unconditional Love of God In the Walk of Life raises awareness of God's unconditional love in the day-to-day living. It has steps an individual (youth) can use to experience His unconditional love. This book is designed to change the youths life so that they can develop their unconditional love of God at a young age. Consequently, this will cause them to build a foundation and be wise in God's word on their earthly journey .It will unlock their potential by helping them to reflect on it. This book will assist the youth with: Relationship with God Getting to know and Trusting Him Thankful and Grateful Faith Perseverance Patience Worship In the Presence of Unconditional Love 58 Micro LLC Inspired by the film Unconditional and Papa Joe Bradford's outreach to at-risk children, Unconditional Love gathers real-life stories celebrating the best in ordinary people who have found extraordinary ways to act as the hands and feet of Jesus in their time and place. Through them we see what matters most in this life, we stir our God-made desire to help others in need, and the world becomes a better place. Papa Joe writes the collection's foreword, starting the conversation about how God's love compels us to show unconditional love for others in ways simple and profound, selfless and yet so rewarding. We meet a band whose trip to Africa resulted in an effort that has so far provided life-saving water and health care to more than 600,000 people. In Tennessee, an 80-year-old woman works a plan to feed 2,000 homeless each week. Others give from their own struggles: a teenager who lost his leg raises money to provide other children with prosthetics; a woman whose brother was killed on 9/11 helps Afghani refugees who fled the Taliban feel at home in the United States; a human rights agency rescues victims of slavery and sexual exploitation. A host of other stories bringing our lives into clearer social and spiritual focus are combined with inspirational quotes, a Bible reading plan, and other tools to encourage further self-discovery and greater personal outreach.

Have you been slowing walking away from God because you have experienced rejection and intense hurt in your life? Have you become simply tired of life and have been merely existing? Maybe you're feeling like God and everyone has abandoned you and your purpose is no longer in sight. Then you're probably experiencing life as the author of this book has. Esther Cummings, a 48-year-old mother and wife, shares her life story with you. 'But God' is an honest and transparent view into a life that has been ordained before birth. In these pages you will experience hurt, rejection, pain, questions of identity and self-esteem issues; but you will also experience the unconditional love of God the author has experienced. Reading this book will bring you face to face with God's Grace, His Mercy, His Love, His restorative Power and will let you know that God still works miracles. The author, simply, yet powerfully, draws you into her past of darkness and doom but also enlightens you on the amazing power of God. A purposed and destined life is obvious in the pages of this book. It is eloquently demonstrated that God is still in the miracle working business, He is still restoring lives and setting them free. If you have found yourself in a dark and doomed season of your life, where you have even walked away from God, this book will bring you to your knees and will cause an awakening in your life. You will realize that you are purposed and destined for greatness and have come to the Kingdom for such a time as this.

The book explores religious experience as a justifiable reason for religious belief, demonstrating that the three pillars of Critical Realism - ontological intransitivity, epistemic relativity and judgemental rationality - can be applied to religion.

Wake Up...live the Life You Love Xulon Press

A new, four-stage approach to the popular Buddhist practice known as loving-kindness meditation, with the aim of finding unconditional love in our own hearts, in our relationships, and in our perception of the world around us. The unconditional love that we all long for—in our own lives and in the world around us—can be awakened effectively with this unique approach to the Tibetan Buddhist practice of loving-kindness meditation. Tulku Thondup gives detailed guidance for meditation, prayers, and visualization in four simple stages that can be practiced in as little as thirty minutes a session. The four-stage format is a brand-new approach being presented for the first time in English, distilled from the author's lifelong study and practice of authentic, traditional teachings. What if we could experience not only our own body, mind, and heart as a boundless source of loving-kindness, but every particle of the world around us as a beautiful realm filled with the blessing energies of the Buddhas and their celestial abodes? The whole environment would become a miraculous display of unconditional love, wisdom, and power, accompanied by the sweet music of holy prayers and inspirational teachings. This is not just a dream or a fantasy but an effective meditation practice that can bring relief from stress, healing to mind and body, healthier relationships, and a positive new outlook on the world around you. Loving-kindness meditations are a highly effective way to generate positive causation, bring true peace and love into our lives, and release ourselves from habitual suffering. When we train ourselves to desire the happiness and well-being of others, with the unconditional love of a mother who cares wholeheartedly for her little ones, we find our whole world pervaded by the positive qualities of joy, peace, and beauty. The training can be compared to sunbathing. As our body absorbs the sun's heat, it becomes warm and gradually emanates that warmth into our surroundings. In the same way, through devotion and trust in the Buddha of Loving-Kindness, we immerse our mind in his unconditional love, which we then radiate to those around us. The Heart of Unconditional Love presents this meditation in a new, four-stage format distilled from the author's lifelong study and practice of authentic, traditional teachings. The meditation can be practiced in as little as thirty minutes a session: • In the Outer Buddha Stage, we open our heart with trust and devotion to the Buddha of Loving-Kindness and enjoy his unconditional love. • In the Inner Buddha Stage, we experience the Buddha's unconditional love within and for ourselves. • In the Universal Buddha Stage, we learn to see, hear, and feel the world around us as a blessed realm of unconditional love. • In the Ultimate Buddha Stage, we rest in the awareness of unconditional love free from conceptual thinking. Designed to be accessible to newcomers as well as experienced meditators, this presentation is a brand-new approach to loving-kindness meditation, being published in English for the first time.

In her first book, Search for Mother, author Valerie Albrecht related her natural therapy birthing work in Australia, India and North America. Through this she unearthed profound questions about the idea of mother-her forms, her essences, her joy and her dualities. Valerie's work, writing and relationship with her own mother brought a longing to connect with the who and why of mother:

the one we have, the one we yearn for, the one we become and the one we strive to be.

Responding to the need to fathom "mother" and to puzzle out the persistent emergence of complexity and dichotomies in motherhood, Albrecht presents this companion volume. It offers a structure and writing process for the exploration of mother through organizing our experiences with our Mothers of Origin, the forms in which we encounter her in our lives, and with our Mothers of Power, the intrinsic natures and essences of her, which we may or may not have encountered. By reflecting on and journaling these mother connections it is Valerie's heartfelt hope that we: deepen our knowledge of motherhood embrace our mother experiences, both positive and negative enhance and inspire our innate resources to mother ourselves and others Inconceivable is the story of a man and his wife who go through life with extreme high and low circumstances. They marry just out of high school and begin to raise their family. After ten years of marriage, they are given a special blessing from God that causes the next seven years to be a dream come true. But at the end of those seven years, an illness called bipolar disorder manifests itself in him and life quickly changes. Over the next twenty years, he fights his illness, going on and off his medication. The marriage relationship suffers great losses and nearly comes to an end. He reconnects through Facebook with an old relationship from high school, which quickly escalates into a heated affair. He decides the marriage is over, moves out of the home and files for divorce. His wife, who could have easily been ready for their marriage to end, began to pray for a Christmas miracle. Her faith in God allowed her to show unconditional love and forgiveness to her husband in a way that drew him back to her in an inconceivable manner.

A courageous cancer survivor shares daily words of spiritual encouragement for people of every faith. More than ten years ago, Denise Barrow was diagnosed with stage four breast cancer--a transformational experience that inspired her to pick up her pen and begin writing daily encouragements to her friends and family. Denise's daily words are based on Bible scriptures, told vividly with compassion and unwavering wit, but intended to free us from "religion"--that organized system of beliefs, practices, and man's way of doing things--so that we can serve God and His purpose in our individual lives. In her inimitable book, Denise candidly shares her long and personal journey of recovery and how she not just talks faith but joyfully lives faith even in the face of difficult circumstances. Denise touches the soul, mind, body, and spirit of all who believe--regardless of religion--teaching, ministering, and evoking healing in all of us. Her daily words will prayerfully help you to value the gift of your life, inspiring love and forgiveness that will unite us all in God's purpose

Priesthood in the Modern World Balboa Press

A strawberry has many seeds on the outside of its surface. These seeds are attached to the strawberry, and when planted, they begin to grow. The same phenomena occurs within our hearts. Throughout life, seeds of emotion, trauma, and experience are planted in our hearts, and we began to sow these seeds. If we've been rejected, a seed of rejection is planted in our hearts, we began to sow seeds of rejection, and on and on. The Strawberry Seeds by Ciera Fulcher was inspired by the seed of love that God planted within her. Meet Luke and Mia, high school sweethearts with seeds of insecurity already sprouting in their hearts. As the sprouts grow taller, and as the couple grows older, more seeds are sown, and the two find themselves at a constant crossroads, unsure of how to heal their past transgressions. It is through this story that Ciera Fulcher describes how a man and woman have to find God in order to learn how to truly love one another unconditionally and replant the garden of their hearts.' Throughout our journeys, we can pick up unhealthy and unwelcome seeds that are sown to our hearts by other people, but God wants us to let the seed of love overtake those seeds that were planted in us. Whether they are seeds that were planted from childhood or adulthood, God wants us to experience Him so we can experience unconditional love and sow seeds from Him in the hearts of others.

The Power of Oneness Balboa Press

Many Christian believers experienced a time in their lives when their faith was not strong or perhaps did not exist at all. Those who are lucky will discover their faith for the first time or have it revitalized. They will see and understand true unconditional love. Author Bill Belknap's Unconditional Love and Faith Observed is about unconditional love and faith in and for our Lord God and Jesus Christ. He shows us how these same emotions relate to all our relationships with people, especially those we love. Belknap shares how he received instructions from God and how God answered his prayers. He honestly and succinctly describes how God directed his earlier life without his acknowledgment. With the study of the Bible and the encouragement, help, and enlightenment of his wife, Donna, before her death, Belknap has learned how important unconditional love and faith are to each of us in our relationships with God, with our loved ones, and with all the people around us. Now in his later years, Belknap wants to help you find a deep,

God-filled life regardless of your age. Unconditional Love and Faith Observed will help you along your faith journey.

Realizing the potential you have to awaken to your power as an enlightened being is central to authentic healing. There is a significant distinction between superficially healing wounds and authentically healing. If you feel ready to surrender all pain and struggle, Divine Healing is a must read. Delivered as both a story and a practice, the author compassionately shares her journey to become whole after the suicide of her daughter in 2005. Though written in the context of the parental grief experience, Divine Healing is intended for anyone who desires authentic healing. Each chapter, a journey in itself, reminds us of the eternal truths that teach that all healing is possible, despite the origin of any pain. The lessons, while not confined to only one experience in pain, reach into the core root of all suffering and will guide anyone through any difficulty to find peace and joy. Not only will you develop a richer understanding of suffering and healing, including viewing loss and grief differently, but by learning to work with the angels, you will reclaim your power as the authentic being you already are. You will learn to honor all of your hurtful experiences and trust in your ability to become whole on your own terms. Realizing you are the catalyst for your own powerful transformation, Divine Healing inspires you to courageously want more for your life, and teaches you how to continually manifest the life you were meant to find and enjoy through a realistic, heartfelt practice.
